

Gifts

It's Christmas time again! This season, celebrate the joy of gift-giving while also supporting your favourite causes.

Whether you're looking for a gift for yourself or for your loved ones, we have something for you. From books, bags, clothes, accessories and even a special dining experience, make it a Christmas to remember.

Check out this Christmas gift guide and spread the joy the Our Better World way!

Save A Gram

SaveAGram is the perfect stop if you're looking for the natural, delicious and fragrant. Helping villagers who farm these grains and spices organically is their goal, saving unique strains of grains and spices for both future generations of city consumers and for the farmers.

Shop their products

The Bornean Sun Bear Conservation Centre (BSBCC)

(BSBCC) is the world's only conservation and research centre dedicated to the rescue and rehabilitation of the Malayan sun bear. Know someone who's an animal enthusiast?

BSBCC has a range of books and merchandise to choose from, or adopt a bear for that extra special someone!

Philippine Eagle Foundation (PEF)

The national bird of the Philippines, the Philippine eagle is a symbol of peace for the indigenous community. PEF is dedicated to saving this critically endangered bird.

Their soft toys and keychains would make excellent gifts for a loved one and go a long way towards eagle conservation.

Mekong Quilts

Mekong Quilts helps under-privileged women earn a sustainable living while working from home, close to their families. The women hand-craft items like quilts, clothes and other lifestyle products.

Purchase a product and give the gift of a better future for these women and their families.

RIMAU

RIMAU is a non-profit organisation dedicated to protecting the Malayan Tiger through education, community engagement and partnerships across government, corporate and non-profit organisations.

Give your loved ones a Malayan Tiger pin or an exquisite bookmark this Christmas.

Re-store

Re-store upcycles. They turn pre-loved and unwanted items into luxe lifestyle products such as bags, hats and other accessories. And they create job opportunities for vulnerable women at the same time.

Shop at Re-store for a win-win gift this Christmas!

Fortitude Culina

What better time to dine out with your loved ones than on Christmas! But what makes Fortitude Culina special is that it's not just a restaurant, but a social enterprise that offers fair employment to the visually impaired with the aid of assistive technology.

Check out their dining options on their website

Earth Heir

By combining luxury craftsmanship and a platform for craftspeople to showcase their skills and traditions, Malaysian social enterprise Earth Heir wants to create a sustainable model for these artisans whilst preserving their heritage.

Shop their collection of artisan jewellery and crafts

Impulse

Birthered from an anti-human trafficking non-profit, Impulse's social enterprise aims to address the root causes of trafficking by creating financial opportunities through setting up weaving clusters within rural communities in Northeastern India.

Shop their collection of apparel, accessories, home decor and stationary

Batik Boutique

Batik Boutique disrupts the cycle of poverty in Malaysia, through providing a form of sustainable income for women living in poverty in Kuala Lumpur.

Shop hand crafted apparel, accessories and homeware made by Malaysian artisans using the art of batik.

Dharavi Market

Dhavari Market is a social enterprise that provides urban squatters who are also skilled craftsmen an online marketplace to sell their wares at competitive prices, creating a sustainable livelihood for them.

Shop artisan crafted leather handbags, accessories and apparel. Whatsapp them for international orders!

Freedom Cup

Founded by three Singaporean sisters, Freedom Cups is championing for a change in the way women face menstruation issues through these bell-shaped silicone cups.

Support Freedom Cups's 'buy1 give 1' model where for every purchase of a cup on their website, a cup is given to a woman in an underprivileged community.

TORAJAMELO

TORAMELO is social enterprise providing up to 1,200 weavers in the region of Toraja, Indonesia with sustainable income whilst preserving traditional artisanal skills. Their handmade items feature traditional techniques infused with modern designs

Shop their extensive apparel to support TORAJAMELO's mission

Phool

Phool is an Indian social enterprise empowering marginalised communities to handcraft eco-friendly products using waste flowers as a raw material. This creates a sustainable livelihood for those deemed 'untouchable' by the caste system

Shop their fragrant and eco-friendly gifts

Artisan & Fox

A social enterprise empowering skilled artisans in developing regions, Artisan & Fox seeks to put the power in artisans' hands in the entire design process. Artisans are guaranteed 50% of all gross profits from each item.

Shop jewellery, accessories and home décor made by artisans

Bring The Elephant Home (BTEH)

BTEH mission is to restore habitats for elephants. Their community-based solutions allow for the coexistence between humans and elephants. All products are harvested by beneficiaries, and even the elephants themselves!

Shop elephant poo dyed t-shirts, candles, soaps made from lemongrass, lime and citronella.